As late as two months ago not one of the large cheese concerns was known to be planning an entrance into the southern field except to sell I cheese manufactured elsewhere. It i known now that they have been watching dairy developments here for several years; and that they decided on this as a logical time to exten manufacturing to this section. If the manufacturing end of th business in the South follows the example of other sections small plants will be located wherever the milk supply and other conditions are fav orable. It is not necessary to locate them on railroads or in towns. Nearness to farmers who make milk is important for convenience in deliver and in handling the by-products. At any rate, another new outlet is being provided for southern dairy products. The consumption of cheese is increasing and southern dairymen are in position to take advantage of

Proposed Amendment Number 10, on the official ballot, gives the following cities the right to increase their own taxes: Gadsden, Bridgeport, Arab, Boaz, Clanton, Albertville, Guntersville, Attalla, Alexander City, Decatur, Sylacauga, Eufaula, Louisville, Union Springs, Jasper and Altoon

The increases in taxation can not become effective without a majority vote of the people in each city.

Proposed Amendment Number 8 would give the City of Mobile the right to use money received from a special tax now authorized by the constitution for general purposes, including public improvements. original purpose of the tax was to pay off an old debt, now greatly reduced. IT WILL NOT INCREASE MOBILE'S TAXES.

Proposed Amendment Number 4 gives the people of Jefferson County, including the citizens of Birmingham, the right to tax themselves one mill additional for the extension of their Tuberculosis Hospital and their fight against that dread disease. IT IS ENDORSED BY CITY, COUNTY, CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS AND MANY INDIVIDUALS AND CORPORATIONS THAT WILL HAVE TO PAY THE EXTRA TAX.

None of the local amendments submitted December 13th will affect any other city, county or community besides those mentioned in the amendment, itself.

Play safe and vote for all of the amendments on December 13th,
